

PIPEDA Review: Measuring the Impact on Service Providers

CPO Roundtable

Ottawa, March 6, 2007

Gabe Mazzarolo, Chief Privacy Officer,
V.P. - Technology

Themes Discussed During the Review

- Disclosure Without Consent When in the Public Interest*
- Collection and Disclosure for Law Enforcement and National Security Purposes*
- Investigative Bodies
- Exemptions to Access Rights
- Commissioner's Powers
 - Order Making
 - Solicitor-Client Privilege
 - Duty to Notify
- Transborder Flows of Personal Information
- Disclosure During Mergers, Acquisitions, and Securitization*
- Cooperation with Other Enforcement Authorities* Attempted Collection Without Consent
- Blanket Consent
- Employee-Employer Relationship
- Work Product
- Addressing Spam

* Workopolis Discussion Points

Service Provider Impact – A Workopolis Perspective

- Disclosure Without Consent When in the Public Interest
- Collection and Disclosure for Law Enforcement and National Security Purposes
 - Balance Specificity and Broadness

Service Provider Impact – A Workopolis Perspective

- Disclosure During Mergers, Acquisitions, and Securitization
- Cooperation with Other Enforcement Authorities

Service Provider Impact – A Workopolis Perspective

Gabe Mazzarolo

Workopolis

(416) 957 8330

gabe.mazzarolo@workopolis.com