

➤

MANAGING INFORMATION IN THE GOVERNMENT OF ALBERTA

Managing Government Information:
4th Annual Forum
Ottawa, ON
February 27, 2006

➤ Agenda

- The Dream
- Achievements to date
- The key issues
- What's next

➤ The Dream

- Information viewed as an important strategic asset
- A collaborative work environment for the next generation
- Electronic and non-electronic information fully managed in an integrated way'
- The technology, practices and raining in place in ministries to enable staff to effectively manage and use all information received and generated in the course of their business in an electronic work environment

➤ The Dream

- Gradual closure of physical file rooms
- A fully integrated digital archives
- Remove the "T" in CIO

➤ Achievements Made by the GoA

- Information Management Framework (approved 2003)
- IM Officials designated
- Corporate IM Strategic Plan (5 year)
- Guidelines and Practices - www.im.gov.ab.ca

➤ Achievements (Continued)

- Corporate Approach to IM

- Full suite -

- DM/RM/WCM/Imaging/Workflow/Collaboration
 - Standing Offer Agreements for EIM
 - Coordinated approach to standards

- Training and Development

- Employee awareness
 - 2 day annual IM Conference
 - Training program for IM professionals being built incrementally

➤ Achievements (Continued)

- Significant developments in some ministries
 - Strategic plans
 - Resourcing
- EIM is being planned or deployed by several ministries
- Standing offer agreements are under constant review
 - New products
 - Promotional pricing

➤ Achievements (Continued)

- Cooperative approach to configuration guidance
 - Security
 - Metadata
 - Functional classification
- Inter-relationships/connectivity with:
 - Sharepoint
 - RedDot web content management
 - Peoplesoft

➤ Key Issues

- Profile
- Funding
- Capacity - skilled resources (staff and consultants)
- Attitudes/Culture shift
- Constant technology changes

➤ What's Next

- A new GoA IM and IT Strategy
- Information Architecture
- Digital Preservation
- Revised CIO Council mandate

➤ Questions

Tom Thackeray
Assistant Deputy Minister
Alberta Government Services
3rd Floor, 10155 - 102 Street
Edmonton, AB T5J 4L4
Phone: (780) 415-5852
E-mail: tom.thackeray@gov.ab.ca